Chamber membership
meeting set for January 18th

Established in 1891, the Greater Eureka Chamber of Commerce has a long history of serving the needs and responding to challenges of businesses throughout the region. Members and friends of the Chamber of Commerce are set to join together for the 128th Annual Membership and Installation Dinner on Friday, January 18, 2019.

The yearly membership gathering is intended as a celebration of the Chamber's efforts to improve business conditions and increase economic opportunities in the region. This year the event will be held at the Sequoia Conference Center and will again feature the exciting Basket of Plenty raffle and a live auction of local products and services with our guest auctioneer State Senator Mike McGuire.

The Annual Dinner is also an opportunity to recognize outstanding Chamber members who have made noteworthy contributions to the local business community. Our members have spoken, nominating and selecting those Chamber members they believe honor best business practices, hold a high standard of professional conduct and are committed to community service. The 2018 award winners highlight those businesses and businesspeople whose business practices and professional conduct contribute to Eureka and the surrounding communities.

Last year we once again hosted a sold out event as members and friends of the Eureka Chamber assembled to enjoy an evening of camaraderie, awards, updates and a review of accomplishments. Among the highlights was the introduction and swearing in of new members of the Board of Directors.

This event is an opportunity to extend a sincere 'thank you' to all of the members, friends, and volunteers who contribute to making the Chamber a stronger voice for area businesses. It is the best occasion for area business leaders to come together in the spirit of unity and common interest in light of the challenges and opportunities of the upcoming year.

Additionally this year we are featuring a table decorating contest. Businesses and organizations may enter this fun element of the Annual Dinner with only a $50 entry fee and their imaginations! Promote your organization in a unique and entertaining way. For more information or to participate contact Carole Crossley at 845-7243 or carolecrossleygifts@gmail.com.

The event begins at 5:30 PM. Reservations are required as space is limited. Call the Chamber at 442-3738 to reserve a seat or a table.

Old Growth Cellars Winery opens tasting room

Old Growth Cellars Winery celebrated the opening of their tasting room with a ribbon cutting ceremony on Thursday, December 6. Owners Jim Pastori and Bob Lima are excited about the new opportunities this will bring to Eureka. "We have lots of plans coming soon to use this space," said Jim. "We'll have wine tasting seminars and private barrel tastings available to parties, jazz nights and comedy nights here at the tasting room."

The tasting room, which is open Thursdays through Sundays from 1 to 7 PM, is already drawing in a small crowd of both locals and tourists. "I love the laidback atmosphere. It's elegantly unpretentious," said Gregg Foster, who attended the ribbon cutting. "And the wine is really good too."

Bob Lima attributes their success to the community of friends who help run the winery. "We really couldn't do it without all the many hands that help us."

Old Growth Cellars is located at 1945 Hilfiker Lane in Eureka. The tasting room and winery are also available for private events and parties. Call Bob Lima at 499-5308 to learn more.

Eureka Rotary Clubs come together to help Paradise wildfire victims

The three Rotary clubs of Eureka—Eureka, Southwest Eureka and Old Town—are coming together to provide club and member donations and facilitate community donations to help the victims of the Paradise Camp Fire that has killed more than 70 people with many still unaccounted for.

Donations from Rotarians and community members will be collected by the Eureka Rotary clubs and contributed to the Rotary Club of Paradise. Contributed funds will be administered by Paradise Rotarians and will provide support to people displaced and damaged. Every dollar donated will be used to support fire survivors, victims and first responders with no fund overhead expense, according to Pesch.

Contributors can donate in several ways. They can provide contributions directly to any of the three Eureka Rotary clubs. They can mail donations by making checks out to Rotary Club of Southwest Eureka and sending them to P.O. Box 6054, Eureka, CA. (Donors are asked to note "Paradise Fire Relief" in the subject line.) For those wishing to provide credit card contributions, call Scott Pesch at 845-3459. Contributions are tax deductible.

Information about the fund is available at www.larca5130.org. Questions can be sent to larca5130@gmail.com. For tax purposes and to have your donated dollar matched, donors can provide their contributions to the Rotary Club of Southwest Eureka Foundation via Club Treasurer John Goff (David L. Moonie & Co., 442-1737, jgoff@dln-cpa.com).

Making it count

Donna Wright, Chamber
Executive Director

What a year this has been! We promised to make 2018 count and to lead our business community into a new era of growth and prosperity. We feel that we have achieved this goal and as a result our membership has grown, proving together we are stronger.

We will be highlighting these changes and achievements, sharing some of our goals for 2019 and celebrating with you at our Annual Membership Meeting on January 18th. We will also premiere our exciting new promotional video, "Live, Work and Play in Eureka." This project was completed in collaboration with KEET, our Northcoast PBS station and features five members sharing their perspectives on the various benefits of doing business in the Eureka area. We screened a rough cut at our final 2018 full board meeting and we can't wait to share the final cut with you!

This year we invited our members to help us select the best of the best in our business community and we are looking forward to revealing the results. Who won the Extraordinary Business of the Year? Small business? All the winners will be announced and we will celebrate their accomplishments. Win or lose, we appreciate your participation and remember, all the nominees are winners too.

This is our 128th Annual Dinner and Membership Meeting and we are dedicating it a fundraiser for "Business HQ", our Chamber's future home. Business HQ is planned to be a place that you, our members, can use to enhance your business. You will have access to the Board Room, Meeting and Training Rooms and the latest technology. It will also house an Incubator and Flex Work Space. It's exciting to have a business hub in the center of downtown.

To make this vision a reality, I am asking you to dig especially deep this year.

Special Fundraising opportunities include:

- Auction items to fill our basket of plenty raffle. Last year, tickets were sold to win over $4,000 in goods, gift certificates and cash. Many members gave items and gift certificates from their own businesses, which was a great way to highlight their products. This year we are hoping to achieve and exceed this.
- Live Auctions. Last year we had very generous donations ranging from Costa Rica vacations and Five Star dining experiences to flights over Humboldt County.
- Sponsorship of specific spaces in Business HQ. Full Board Room, Meeting Rooms, Offices and flex work desks to technology. As a sponsor of these spaces, your name would be prominently displayed and your business acknowledged.

Any and all support at this very special time is truly appreciated.

I would also like to thank our 2018 Board and Committees. Their efforts have been amazing and under their guidance we have been able to achieve, and in some cases exceed, our expectations. I am personally looking forward to highlighting some of them at the annual dinner, and excited to welcome the 2019 Board. I know from speaking with them, that they have grand plans.

Most of all, I would like to thank you, our valued members. You have been engaged and made great suggestions to move our business community forward. I cannot wait to see where you take us in 2019!

Why ballroom dance?

Submitted by: Debbie Weist, Dance With Debbie

For those who love it, ballroom dancing beats a dull workout on the treadmill. Besides the cardiovascular benefits, it also happens to be 70% effective at preventing dementia. In the article: “Use it or Lose it: Dancing Makes You Smarter”, the author, Richard Powers, summarizes a study by the Albert Einstein College of Medicine published in the New England Journal of Medicine that found of all the common physical activities participated by senior citizens, dancing was the only one that offered protection against dementia.

It seems our brains only rewire pathways as needed, so if you aren’t stimulating your brain to keep the pathways open or create new paths, it doesn’t happen. Also, it is better to create multiple neural paths in case something happens to one, you will still have the others to accomplish a task. Powers used this analogy: “The more stepping stones there are across the creek, the easier it is to cross in your own style.” If you only have one set of stones and one stone is removed or blocked, you cannot cross.

Then he asked the question you are probably thinking right now: Why dancing? And a follow-up question: Any specific type of dancing? Answering both questions at the same time; the split-second rapid-fire decision making of ballroom dancing stimulates the connectivity of your brain while simultaneously developing kinesthetic, rational, musical, and emotional processes. In other words, dancing with a partner requires you to make decisions quickly, respond to outside stimuli, while connecting emotionally/socially with another person.

Besides integrating several brain functions at once, dancing promotes good physical health. Ballroom dance techniques encourage good posture and the more you dance, the better the work out. Not everyone who tries ballroom dancing falls in love with it. But those who do find that exercise becomes a form of play.

Eureka Host Lions Club announces Student Speaker Contest

The Eureka Host Lions Club is pleased to announce the topic for 2018-2019 Student Speakers Contest “Freedom of the Press: What Does It Mean?”

Now in its 82nd year, the Student Speakers Contest is open to all California high school students. The California Lions are particularly engaged in service areas that recognize and support our youth in leadership development. In this regard, we work hand-in-hand together with other service minded associations, agencies, and individuals.

Coast Central Camp Fire Fund donates over $13,000

Coast Central Credit Union President/CEO James T. Sessa, announced that, together with generous support from its members, a total of $13,475 has been donated to Camp Fire relief efforts.

Coast Central made a $11,275 donation to non-profit TLK Foundation, a partner of Yuba City-based Sierra Central Credit Union, which has several branches in Butte County. The Foundation’s commitment is that 100% of funds collected through donations will be distributed to Camp Fire survivors.

Coast Central also made a $2,200 contribution to Butte County Toys for Tots for the purchase of toys for children directly affected by the Camp Fire.

The fire, which started on November 8, is the deadliest and most destructive wildfire in California history, killing 85 residents and destroying nearly 12,000 homes in Paradise. 11 individuals remain missing.

“The continued giving spirit of our membership is extraordinary,” Sessa stated. “In support of the Carr and Mendocino fire victims, members and the credit union previously contributed over $16,000 in donations. To be able to collectively give another $13,000 to Camp Fire survivors, especially during the holidays, reminds us what an exceptional community in which we live.”

Donations will continue to be accepted at all Coast Central Member Services Branches, and 100% of all contributions will be awarded to deserving organizations in direct support of victims of the fire.

2019 Standard Mileage Rates

From IRS.GOV

The Internal Revenue Service issued the 2019 optional standard mileage rates used to calculate the deductible costs of operating an automobile for business, charitable, medical or moving purposes.

Beginning on Jan. 1, 2019, the standard mileage rates for the use of a car (also vans, pickups or panel trucks) will be:

58 cents per mile driven for business use, up 3.5 cents from the rate for 2018,

20 cents per mile driven for medical or moving purposes, up 2 cents from the rate for 2018, and 14 cents per mile driven in service of charitable organizations.

The business mileage rate increased 3.5 cents for business travel driven and 2 cents for medical and certain moving expense from the rates for 2018. The charitable rate is set by statute and remains unchanged.

It is important to note that under the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, taxpayers cannot claim a miscellaneous itemized deduction for unreimbursed employee travel expenses. Taxpayers also cannot claim a deduction for moving expenses, except members of the Armed Forces on active duty moving under orders to a permanent change of station. For more details see Notice-2019-02.

The standard mileage rate for business use is based on an annual study of the fixed and variable costs of operating an automobile. The rate for medical and moving purposes is based on the variable costs.

Taxpayers always have the option of calculating the actual costs of using their vehicle rather than using the standard mileage rates.

A taxpayer may not use the business standard mileage rate for a vehicle after using any depreciation method under the Modified Accelerated Cost Recovery System (MACRS) or after claiming a Section 179 deduction for that vehicle. In addition, the business standard mileage rate cannot be used for more than four vehicles used simultaneously. These and other limitations are described in section 4.05 of Rev. Proc. 2010-51.

Notice 2019-02, posted on IRS.gov, contains the standard mileage rates, the amount a taxpayer must use in calculating reductions to basis for depreciation taken under the business standard mileage rate, and the maximum standard automobile cost that a taxpayer may use in computing the allowance under a fixed and variable rate plan.

November Mixer at the Clarke

By: Jessika Chapman, Chamber Ambassador, MikkiMoves Real Estate

The cool breeze, November night mixer at the Clarke History Museum was fantastic. We had a wonderful turnout from the community and we were all impressed with the presentation from Director/Curator Ben Brown.

Ben shared with us some of the many accomplishments and upcoming events that are, and have been, happening.

He noted the partnership with Humboldt Made in creating the visitor center has been incredible, combining the museum's established position in the community with the energy and drive of Humboldt Made has created a powerhouse.

The Museum has had record attendance this year, on pace for around 20,000 in 2018, which includes docent-led tours for 1,000 students.

With the museum's renewed focus, they have been spending a tremendous amount of time, energy, and resources to make their historical structure watertight with a new roof this year, pushing forward many modernizing features which in fact bring back the former glory of the building. (It is a beautiful building!)

While the Clarke Historical Museum has a tremendous amount of momentum, they still need to focus on growing their membership as they rely on the community to help them continue their mission of preserving and presenting this region's history, while providing visitors and locals information on the best places to eat, shop and play in Eureka.

Not only did we get an interesting presentation by Ben, but there were also several local vendors who came to share their wonderful products with us.

Humboldt Craft Spirits warmed us up with delicious samples of their signature cocktails made with creation and love. From

"Apple Pie In A Glass", "Pomegranate Rosemary Gin Fizz", to "Cinnamon Maple Whiskey Sour," I personally had to try each one.

Briceland Vineyards came with their impressive crafted wines, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Pino Noir, Cabernet and more. I love sharing these wines with clients, family members, and friends.

There is no mixer in January, please join us at the Annual Dinner and Membership Meeting.

For more December mixer photos visit: www.facebook.com/eurekachamberofcommerce

Dear Eureka Chamber Member:

Imagine a place where small businesses and entrepreneurs can come together to share ideas. Imagine a space where the expense of rent, office staff, internet and utilities are also shared. Imagine the vision of an environment where new approaches to today's complex business universe can be nurtured to maturity in a place far from the stress and cost of an urban jungle.

This is the vision of The Greater Eureka Chamber of Commerce.

We understand the need in our community to provide flexible and affordable work spaces for small and upcoming businesses. It is our focus to create an environment and technology to nurture local entrepreneurs and ensure their success. It is our hope that such a vision will also attract creative thinkers seeking the lifestyle we so value here on the North Coast.

We can only bring this vision to fruition with the support of the business community. This is why we are inviting established businesses, like yours, who have a reputation for giving back to the non-profit network, to help us make the "incubator"/"flex-workspace" concept a reality.

I sincerely hope you will agree to sponsor the flexible work space project. Your assistance would make a big difference in our small but vibrant community and offer support of this program that is an exciting and creative new way of stimulating the economy of the Greater Eureka area. I can be reached at 707-442-3738 or at donnawright@eurekachamber.com and I would be delighted to arrange a time for us to meet to discuss the details of this unique opportunity. We will be following up this letter with a phone call.

Thank you for your kind attention to my request. I look forward to talking with you soon.

Sincerely,

Donna Wright
Executive Director
