Platinum Float Spa celebrates Grand Opening

We are proud to announce the recent celebration for the 10th Anniversary of Platinum Studio's Eureka salon at 123 5th Street, and the Grand Opening of the new Platinum Float Spa. A ribbon cutting ceremony was held in conjunction with the June Arts Alive! and featured music by D.J. Tomcat from 99.1 KISS FM, drawings and prize giveaways every hour and a display of original oil paintings by Lynn Niekrasz.

Shawnatee Parris opened Platinum Studio ten years ago with the goal of offering platinum quality in a full service salon. "I'm excited to expand into this great space conveniently located next door to the salon," said Parris.

Platinum Float is a completely new experience in relaxation. Floating in a super saturated solution of Epsom salt and water frees you from the sensation of gravity, temperature, touch, sight and sound. It conserves and redirects vast amounts of physical and mental energy. This will decompress the spine and induce a state of ultra-deep relaxation. Benefits of floating are numerous. Melt away tension, lower cortisol and calm your mind. Floating therapy works wonders for relaxation and recovery but can also provide chronic pain relief, boost creativity and leave you with a euphoric afterglow that can last for days.

For more information about Platinum Float Spa visit <http://platinumstudiosalonandspa.com/services/float-pods/>.

Moving in a positive direction

Donna Wright
Executive Director

In late 2017 the Chamber surveyed our membership externally to better understand your needs and have since worked diligently to meet your expectations.

We learned that you wanted us to be a “Champion” for a stronger community, represent business interests and be a catalyst for business growth and relationships. Many of you voiced the desire to have us promote your businesses and the community and support the election of business friendly candidates.

As a result of the survey, our Board produced a Five Year Strategic Plan and our staff has been working with our board committees to fulfill your needs. Just two years in, we feel that we are moving in a very positive direction.

The committees of Business and Industry, Business and Education, Tourism, Government Affairs and Organization, along with our Ambassadors, are working tirelessly toward building programs, keeping a watchful eye on legislation, while promoting positive new growth. We are now planning to present meaningful seminars kicking off with Grow with Google coming to town July 24th, and creating events that have the purpose of networking and building stronger business relationships.

With the opening of our new downtown office, we can now offer opportunities for members to have a space to grow their business and be able to have the latest of technology when using the meeting rooms. We have totally rebuilt our website with the focus of driving business to your websites, phones, and front doors by using SEO tools to boost your online presence without any additional cost to your membership.

Over the coming months, we hope that you will keep an eye on our website, and social media sites of Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and YouTube, to follow our programs and promotions of your businesses. Please make time to read our newsletter and contribute articles and ideas. Most importantly, engage with us. Call, e-mail or drop by to give us feedback, positive reinforcement, suggestions and concerns. Our mission statement is “The Greater Eureka Chamber of Commerce is an organization of members that promotes and advocates for trade, commerce, jobs and tourism”

Together we are stronger.

Building Business HQ: a story of teamwork

It wasn't easy but the Business HQ flex workspace is a reality thanks to the many chamber members who stepped up big time.

After months of planning and negotiations, your chamber has achieved the goal of "providing a place where small businesses and entrepreneurs can come together."

It was truly a collaborative effort. Generous chamber members contributed to the project by writing checks and/or offering in-kind donations. As an example, Sears donated a refrigerator, while Stewart Telecommunications provided a bright red British style phone box. You can see them in the foyer when you visit and have a cup of Jitterbean Coffee while you make a private phone call. When you enter the large conference room, you will no doubt notice the Sharp Aquos Board, a donation from Coastal Business Systems. We think you will enjoy the artwork of Rob Hampson, which grace the walls.

Vendors and contributors expressed their enthusiasm for the new space, like local Interior Decorator, Sandra Greenleaf who was, "happy to be part of the Eureka Chamber's dream in creating an inviting and inspirational work space."

Kurt Kramer of Kramer Properties agreed, "We are excited to welcome the Chamber to downtown Eureka, encouraging and supporting businesses to locate in our City Center."

According to Chamber Executive Director, Donna Wright, "Our focus was to create an environment and technology that benefit start-ups, home businesses and entrepreneurs to insure their success, while also offering members affordable conference, meeting and training rooms. A space where our business community can come together to build relationships and build a strong community."

"The chamber was amazed at the assistance and support that we received," Wright added, "and the best part is that we fulfilled our commitment to keep it local and use only members in every way possible. This was definitely a major accomplishment and we can't thank those who helped enough."

Now let's watch it grow...

If you haven't visited yet, please plan to drop by for a quick tour. Remember, if you are a member this space belongs to you.

David Gordon of KEET-TV used the facility for a recent meeting and was very happy with the experience. "This is a great meeting facility. The space was comfortable and had the support systems in place, like phone conferencing, that allowed our meeting to run smoothly. Highly recommended."

So whether you just need a computer and printer, a private meeting room or a large conference room with all the bells and whistles, search no further. It's in downtown Eureka at the Chamber of Commerce. Stop by 612 G Street next to the Discovery Museum and pick up a brochure and tour or visit our website to learn more.

We also welcome you to the Eureka Chamber & Business HQ Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting on Saturday, August 3rd at 1:00 pm. We will be celebrating during the Street Arts Festival and also unveiling our mural showcasing and thanking our valued sponsors.

Come one, come all, this new office has been created for you. Business HQ, a place where we come together and build a better business community.

The Board and staff of the Greater Eureka Chamber of Commerce would like to express their sincere appreciation to the following businesses and individuals for their generous support:

The welcoming and friendly Umpqua Bank hosts April Mixer

By: Kara Clower, Business Manager with LACO Associates, and Chamber Ambassador

In Downtown Eureka, Umpqua Bank left their doors open for our members to gather. Mixers are a time for sharing knowledge and building relationships within our business community, and this could not be done without our hosts. To make the night even better, Café Nooner provided delightful local food, and beverages were provided by Six Rivers Brewing. In attendance at the mixer were the Eureka Chamber Youth Ambassadors offering another opportunity for them to engage with our business community professionals.

Umpqua has a saying expressing they are the kind of bank you would take home to meet your parents. After this mixer, we can see they are hospitable, knowledgeable, and dedicated to their customers. Dana Do, Umpqua Store Manager, would like to thank

Café Nooner and Six Rivers Brewing. She also expressed, "I am very thankful for the opportunity to host the Chamber Mixer at the Eureka Store. As a new Manager with Umpqua, I see it as an opportunity to connect with local businesses outside the normal day to day. Working for a company that focuses on community participation, [this] allows me to connect with county residents and get a better understanding of local community needs. It is an exciting time to listen to how our local companies are thriving."

Dana Do is right. This is an exciting time for our local businesses. We encourage all of our members to attend the next mixer and join in on the conversations. Our community is as strong as our relationships and support.

The Chamber's next mixer is on Thursday, July 18th, and is hosted by the Sequoia Humane Society at 6073 Loma Avenue. The doors will open at 5:30 pm. Don't forget, a fun and easy way to promote your business is to bring a gift for the Business Card Drawing.

EXPERT PARTNERSHIPS for Businesses

"We were first impressed with Coast Central's community involvement. With each experience, their 'member-first' attitude shines through."

Matt Wakefield, Co-owner
SeaQuake Brewing

"It's been a mad sprint since we opened!" The journey was quick...a vacation in Hawaii led to brewing beer in a barn that evolved into the booming family business SeaQuake Brewing is today. When Matt Wakefield, his father-in-law, Kevin Hartwick, and their family toured Kona Brewing in 2014, they were inspired: "Crescent City needs one of these!" After 18 months of research, fine-tuning recipes and business plans, SeaQuake opened like a firecracker on 4th of July, 2016. "We desperately needed to expand our capacity and find a partner who could keep up with the growth. That was the team at Coast Central."
